

Wisconsin Digital Archives

Provided by the Wisconsin Document Depository Program

Your Connection to State Government

The Wisconsin Digital Archives is a growing collection of documents about the activities, functions, and policies of Wisconsin State Government.

Informative

Current, newsworthy topics about life in WI

Search or browse reports, studies, statistics, newsletters, maps, manuals, & guides

Accurate

State documents are authoritative & reliable

Published by State Agencies, Courts, Councils, Boards, Commissions, & Task Forces

Engaging

Promote civic literacy & engagement

Access to state documents provides government transparency

Read the Blog

Connect with trending topics through the monthly post on the WI Libraries for Everyone Blog

dpi.wi.gov/wilibrariesforeveryone

Need help?

Contact Wisconsin Digital Archives

(608) 224-6174

statedocuments@dpi.wi.gov

The Wisconsin Digital Archives is provided by the Department of Public Instruction.