DISCUSSION

Jurisdiction

The undersigned ALJ has authority to preside over this due process proceeding pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 115.80(2).

Burden of proof

The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled that the burden of proof in an administrative hearing challenging an IEP is on the party seeking relief. Schaffer v. Weast, 546 U.S. 49, 62 (2005). As the complainants in this matter, the burden of proof is on the Parents. Free, appropriate public education

The IDEA requires that all children with disabilities are offered a free, appropriate public education (FAPE) that meets their individual needs. 20 USC § 1400 (d); 34 CFR § 300.1. In their hearing request, the Parents alleged that the District denied the Student FAPE because it did not implement public health agency-recommended COVID-19 mitigation measures in v j g"Uvwfgpvøu"ngg o gpvct{"uejqqn, and they requested compensatory education to remedy the alleged denial of FAPE. Then, prior to the meeting being held, the Parents informed the IEP team that they would not be sending the Student to school in-person. In December 2021, the IEP team did, in fact, meet vq"tgxky"v j g"Uvwf g p v o u"KGR"cpf discuss COVID-19 mitigation measures. As a result, COVID-19 mitigation protocols were added vq"v j g"Uvwf g p v o u"revised IEP, effective January 10, 2022. (D. Ex. 30) The Parents continued the hearing request because they do not agree with the COVID-19 mitigation measures in the revised IEP and believe the measures are insufficient to provide the Student with FAPE. However, with regard to the alleged denial of FAPE from September 1, 2021 to January 10, 2022, the written settlement agreement executed by the parties on January 3, 2022 does o fully and finally o resolve the claim for compensatory education for that period of time. (D. Ex. 31) The Parents acknowledge that the compensatory education agreement resolved their claim"for the time that the Student was out of school learning through an online program. (Tr. 709, 720, 894; Uvwf g p v o u" r q u v - h e a r i n g b r i e f , p . 8)

Therefore, even if this tribunal determined that the District had denied the Student FAPE while they were out of school and that the Student was thusly entitled to compensatory education as a remedy, the decision would have no practical legal effect. An issue is moot when a judgment on the matter would have no practical legal effect upon the controversy. Ziemann v. Village of Hudson, 102 Wis. 2d 705, 712, 307 N.W.2d 236 (1981). Accordingly, because it is moot whether the District denied the Student FAPE from September 1, 2021 to January 10, 2022, it is unnecessary for this tribunal to issue a ruling regarding the provision of FAPE to the Student during that portion of the 2021-2022 school year.
