State superintendent to visit Chilton Public Library

MADISON – State Superintendent Jill Underly will discuss the work being done to offer inclusive library services, and the need for additional resources for public libraries Monday on a visit to the Chilton Public Library.

Dr. Underly will speak with Chilton Library Director Glenny Whitcomb and library staff regarding programming, including the library's work toward moving to being fine free, creating a community makerspace, serving rural communities, and developing the Inclusive Services Institute and the Inclusive Services Assessment and Guide. She will also sit in on the Mindfulness and Me summer youth program, an outdoor program designed to mitigate COVID-19 risk.
